 Whereas, Death has deprived us of the services and Council of a member of this body, in the person of S.F. Wilhelm, And whereas, he was punctual and faithful in his duties as such officer, executing promptly and efficiently, the various duties assigned him in that capacity, and whereas his unfailing good judgement and timely council was invariably of great assistance and value to his fellow councilman, Therefore be it resolved that we make acknowledgment of his service to the council, to his town and to his community which he loved to serve.
 The Mayor declaired the adoption, Moved, and seconded that we adjourn
