SPECIAL MEETING
Apr. 27, 1978

A special meeting was called to order by Mayor Schleisman in the council chambers at 11:00 a.m. for the purpose of awarding contracts for Part A, water construction, and Part B, storm sewer construction for the Lillian Ave. street construction.

Councilmen present: McLean, Beeghly, Moler, Graham.
Absent: Zern.

Others present: Dwayne Garber, George Greiner, Scott Arenholz, Steve Arenholz, James Olinger, Paul Eckerman, Randy Daniel, Al Walling, and Bill Hartwig.

Dwayne Garber, of Clapsaddle-Garber Associates, project engineer, conducted the meeting covering construction dates and deadlines for both Part A and B. Bill Hartwig, contractor for Part A, indicated that he would get started on May 12, 1978, beginning on a line on Lincoln Street between Maple Avenue and Lillian Avenue, and concluding his work on May 27. The clerk was authorized to place a notice in The Conrad Record stating that there would be brief outages of water during this time due to the construction.
